Don't Delay Place Your Order

For that fall or winter suit NOW. Next month will be too late. If you would be sure of your fall or winter suit or overcoat, come in today and be measured and select the fabric desired from 500 samples of real woolen fabrics that we are showing and can fill orders from at nearly old prices, from the International Tailoring Co.

Many tailoring companies are refusing orders from their sample books because they cannot buy the cloth. Wool is advancing every week and the government is taking all that is offered. You know what that means? No woolen fabrics, nothing but shoddy.

The International Tailoring Co. foresaw this situation and bought an immense stock of woolens months ago and can therefore fill orders promptly and at old prices.

So we say "Don't Delay" but place your order now. It is your last chance, till the war ends, to get a genuine wool suit made to your order, with both the fit, workmanship and quality guaranteed.

We Still Have Good Ready-to-Wear Clothing but, it is going fast.

A word to the wise—act now.

Optimistic Thought.

MORRISVILLE CHURCHES

Congregational Church

Dr. H. W. Maier, of New Britain, Conn., will preach at the First Congregational church next Sunday morning, July 14.

The Unity class met Monday afternoon and enjoyed a basket lunch at the home of the teacher, Mrs. W. F. Steele. All were glad to welcome back to the choir Miss Belle Barrows, who has been absent several Sundays on account of illness in her home.

Rev. W. Stanley Post occupied the pulpit of this church for the last time Sunday and preached a strong and helpful sermon from Phil. 4:8 taking as his theme "The Power of Thought". He also conducted the Sunday evening service. Mr. Post and family expect to leave for their future home in Springfield, Mass., this evening.

The Woman's Auxiliary holds its regular monthly meeting Thursday p. m., with Mrs. G. W. Clark. The subject is "Old Settlers and New," and the program will include work with the Indians, Spanish speaking people, Portoricans, and the Filipinos.

Advent Church

Reports of Beebe camp meeting are very encouraging. Twenty ministers were in attendance; about 50 persons professed conversion; six were baptized; mission interests were well supported, being represented by Rev. C. H. Hudson of India and others.

Service last Sunday was a Love Feast with communion and a baptism.

During Sunday school hour committees were named to arrange for the annual picnic.

Mrs. Bennett led the L. W. service, with the subject, "Allegiance to our Country and Loyalty to God."

The pastor, Rev. J. J. Bennett, preached in the evening from 1 Cor. 13:12, "Face to Face." The four headings were: "By a look into the Mirror of God," does the Christian see? "What does the Sinner see?" "What does the Man in need see?" "What will all see on the last great day?"

The Mission meeting was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. J. Bennett. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at the church at 8 o'clock.

Thursday evening the pastor will begin a series of ten meetings in Garfield. Last Sunday afternoon he preached in the school house in the Matthews district.

The subject for next Sunday morning at the church, by the pastor, will be "The Empty Pew and Church, or Morbus Sanguis." Mrs. Bennett will speak in the evening.

Methodist Church

A patriotic recitation was given by Mrs. E. E. Silloway during the Sunday School hour last Sunday morning.

The Epworth League services Sunday evening was led by Miss Esther Bacon, followed with a sermon by the pastor.

Mr. Best will preach this evening at the home of Henry Carroll on West Hill. Lieut. J. H. Best will also give a patriotic talk at this meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Sunday School board following the prayer meeting to-morrow evening.

Next Sunday morning Mr. Best will preach from the subject, "The Dawn of To-morrow."

Preparations are now being made for the State Sunday School convention to be held in Morrisville next October.

A Pleasant Affair

The Unity of the Cong'l church held a very pleasant social meeting at the home of their teacher, Mrs. W. F. Steele, Monday from 4 to 8 p. m. Thirteen members enjoyed the trip to the Steele home, overlooking Lake Lamolite, the party being conveyed in autos. The occasion was an "Indian Afternoon" and the guests were first taken in the house to inspect Mrs. Steele's Indian curios, which comprises about 50 pieces. They were then asked to make a list of these curios and prizes were awarded. Mrs. Helen Robinson had the best memory and was awarded first prize, an Indian picture, while Miss Edna Slayton was awarded the booby prize, a pair of miniature moccasins, made of peanuts. Jumbled up letters which were to be formed into Indian names, made another interesting contest and Mrs. Edna Slayton guessed these all correctly and in the shortest time, Mrs. Blanche Morse and Mrs. Edith Davis being close seconds. Another Indian Name contest was a novel feature, the names being found in quotations provided. A variety of refreshments were served, as this was a "covered dish social."

Local Red Cross

Sewing at Red Cross rooms Thurs. and Friday afternoons of this week as usual.

The directions and orders for knitting socks and other articles for Red Cross come directly from Washington headquarters, and it is required that goods be knitted by such, as they will not be accepted otherwise. The Kitchener toe has been found by experience to be the most desirable and we must comply with orders and knit that kind of a toe. We trust knitters will follow directions, published in local papers last week, if any have started socks and have not finished them according to the new directions, draw the yarn through the toe and hand in to be finished as per new rules. New directions can be procured of Mrs. Mary Cauty, if you have not the local paper containing same. Ladies will be at Red Cross rooms Thursday and Friday afternoon this week to assist any who are having difficulty in knitting the Kitchener toe.
